JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER II, 1841, MESSAGE.

To the Senate, and House of Representatives of the U. States. In coming together, fellow-citizens, to enter again upon the discharge of the duties with whih the People Lave charged us, severally, we find great occasion to rejoice in the general prosperity of the country. We are in the enjoyment of all the blessings of civil and religious liberty, with unerampled means of education, knowledge, and improvement. Through the year which is now drawing to a close, peace has been in our borders, and plenty in our habitations; and although disease has visited some few portions of the land with distress and mortality, yet in general the health of the People has been preserved, and we are all called upon; by the highest obligations of duty, to renew our thanks and gurdevotion to our Heavfond example in numbers, in strength, in wealth, in knowledge, in every thing which promotes hu-man and social happiness, let us ever remember dence.

Since your last adjournment, Alex's McLeod, -a British subject, who was indicted for the murder of an American citizen, and whose case has bean the subject of a correspondence heretofore communicated to you, has been acquitted by the -verdict of an impartial and intelligent-jury, and Lus, under the judgment of the Court, been regutarly discharged.

Great Pritain having made known to this Government that the expedition which was fitted out from Canada for the destruction of the steamboat Caroline, in the winter of 1837, and which resulted in the destruction of said boat, and in the death of an American citizen, was in the affair at Schloeser. undertaken by orders emanating from the authanties of the British Government, in Canada, and demanding the discharge of McLood upon the ground that, if engaged in that expedition, he did but fulfil the orders of his Government, has thus been answered in the only way in which she could be answered by a Government, the powers of which are distributed among its several departments by the fundamental law. Happily for the prople of Great Britain, as well as those of the United States, the only mode by which an individual, arrangeed for a commad ofwhich an individual, an algorid for a command of this Government to protect them against all iministitutions and wholesome laws, and that, fence, before the Courts of either, can obtain his proper and vexations interruption. However destinately through its example, another evidence is to be discharge, is by the independent action of the judiciary, and by proceedings equally familiar to the courts of both countries.

If in Great, Britain a power exists in the Crown to cause to be entered a nolle proseque, which is not the case with the Executive power of the United States, upon a prosecution pending in a State Court yet there, no more than here can the Chief Executive power rescue a prisoner from custody without an order of the proper tribunal directing his discharge. The precise stage of the proceedings at which such order may be made, is a matter of municipal regulat on exclusively, and not to be complained of by any other. Government. In cases of this kind, a Gov ernment becomes politically responsible only, when its tribunals of last resort are shown to have rendered unjust and injurious judgment in maitters not doubtful. To the establishmenr and elacidation of this principle, no nation has lent its authority more efficiently. Than G. Brit-

Alexander McLood having his option either to prosecute a writ-of error from the decision of the Sudreme Court of New Yoak, weich had been rendered upon his application for a discharge, to the Supreme Court of the United States, or to submit his case to the decision of a jury, preferred the latter, deeming it the readiest mode of obtaining his liberation, and the result has fully sustained the wisdom of his choice. The manner in which the issue submitted was tried will satisfy the English Government that the principles of justice will never full to govern the ending punishment. Many of the States composite ratification by the Ecuadorian Executive, in the education of an American tribunal. I more than Union, had made appeals to the civilized. A Convention which has been conclude making such provisions by law, so far as they the iniquities of the traffic. Whether this Govmay constitutionally do so, for the removal at their commencement, and at the option of the party, of all such cases as may hereafter arise. and which involve the faithful observance and execution of our international obligations, from the State to this Federal Judiciary. This Goverament, by our institutions, is charged with the maintenance of peace and the preservation of amicable relations with the nations of the earth, the new simulations of new treaties, to which and ought to possess, without question, all the United States may be a party. This gove reasonable and proper means of maintaining the one and preserving the other. Whilst just confidence is felt in the Judiciary of the States, yet this Government ought to be competent in itself for the fulfilment of the high duties which have been devolved upon it under the organic law, by the States themselves.

In the month of September, a party of armed men from Upper Ganada invaded the territory of the United Stas, and forcibly seized upon this person of one Grogan, and, under circulastances of great harshness, hurriedly carried him beyond the limbs of the United States, and delivered him up to the authorities of Upper Canada. His immediate discharge was authorized by those authorities, upon the facts of the case being brought to their knowledge a course of procedure which was to have been expected from a nation with whom we are at peace, and which was not more due to the rights of the United States, than to its own regard for justice. The correspondence which passed between the Cepartment of State and the British Envoy, Mr. Fox, and with the Governor of Vermant, as soon as the facts had been made known to this Department, are herewith communicated. I regret that it is not in my power to make known to you an equally satisfactory conclusion in the case of the Caroline steomer, with the cir-oumstances connected with the destruction of which, in Dec. 1837, by an armed force fitted out in the Province of Upper Canada, you are already marie arquainted. No such atonement was due for the public wrong done to the U. States by this siverion of her territory, so wholly in coon ollable with her rights as an independent power; has yet been made. In the view taken by this Government, the inquiry whether the vessel was in the employment of those who were prosecuting an unauthorized war vesunst that Province. or was engaged by the owner in the business of Mansporting passengers to and from Navy Island in hopes of private gain, which was most probably the case, in no degree alters the real question at issue between the two governments. This government can never concede to any forcign government the power, except in a case of the most orgent and extreme necessity, of invading its territory, either to arrest the persons of destroy the property of those who may have violated the municipal laws of such foreign govern-

Nor will I indulge a doubt but that the sense of justice of G. B. will constrain her to make retribution for any wrong, or loss, which any American citizen, engaged in the prosecution of lawful commerce, may have experienced at the hand of its enursers, or other public authorities ... This government, at the same time, will relax no effort to prevent its citizens, if there be any so disposed, from probesu ting a traffic so revolting to the feelings of humanity. It seeks to do no more than to protect the fair and honest trader from molestation and injury; but while the enterprising mariner, engaged in the pursuit of an honorable trade, is enlittled to its protection, it will visit with condign punishment others of an opposite character. . I invite your attention to existing laws for the suppression of the African slave trade, and recommend all such alterations, as may give to them greater force and officacy. That the American flag is grossly abused by the abandoned and profligate of other nations, is but too probable. Congress has, not long since, had this subject under its consideration, and its importance well ustifies renewed and anxious attention.

I also communicate herewith the copy of a correspondence between Mr Stevenson and Lord Palmerston, upon the subject so interesting to several of the Southern States, of the rice duties which resulted honorably to the instice of Great Butain, and advantageously to the

I invited your attention to the condition of the currency and exchanges, and urged the necessity of adopting such measures as were consistent with the conditional competency of the Government, in order to correct the missoundness of the one, and as far as practicable the inequalities of the other. No country can be in the enjoyment of its full measure of pro-perity, without the pres-ence of a medium of exchange, approximating to circulation affords no tempation to speculation uniformity of volue. What is necessary as between the different nations of the earth is also important as between the inhabitants of different parts of the same country; with the first the precious metals constitute the chief medium of circulation, and such also would be the case as to the last, but for inventions comparatively modern, which have furnished in place of gold and silver, a paper circulation. I do not propose to enter into a comparative analysis of the two systems. Such belouged more properly to the period of the introduction of the paper sys-

The speculative philosophy might find inducements to prosecute the inquiry, but his researches could only lead him to conclude, that the paper system had probably better never have been introduced and that society might have been much happier without it. The practical statesmen has a very different task to perform. He has to look at things as they are to take them as he finds them to supply desiciences, and to prince excesses as far as, in him lies. The task of turnishing a corrective for de-rangements of the paper medium with us, is almost inexpressibly great. The power exerted by the States to charter banking corporations, and which, having been carried to a great excess, has filled the uncoasingly: Mumbers have been captured, and country with, in most of the States, an irredsemable paper medium, is an evil which in some way or other requires a corrective. The rates at which bills of exchange are negociated between different parts of the country, furnish an index of the value of the local substitute for gold and silver, which is, in many parts, so fur depreciated as not to-be received, except at a large discount, in payment of debts, or in the mination. With all the other Indian tribes, we that every bank, not possessing the means of re are enjoying the blessings of peace. Our duty, sumption, should follow the example of the late U purchase of produce. It could earnestly be desired States Bank of Pennsylvania, and go into liquidation condition of things. Whether this government, with due regard to the rights of the States, has any power to constrain the banks, either to resume specie payments, or to force them into liquidation, is an inquiry which will not fail to claim your considerato make loans to three times the amount of their capital, thereby often deriving three times as much interest on the same amount of money as any indimineration the same amount of money as any indimineration. vidual is permitted by law to receive, no sufficient apology can be urged for a long continued suspension M specie payments. Such suspension is productive to the greatest detriment to the public, by expelling from circulation the precious metals, and seriously hazarding the success of any effort that this Government can make, to increase commercial facilities, and to advance the public interests.

This is the more to be regretted, and the indispensable necessity for a sound currency becomes the Secretary of the Treasury, submitted to Congress; more manifest, when we reflect on the vast amount of the internal commerce of the country. Of this we have no statistics, nor just data for forming adequate opinions. But there can be no doubt, but that the amount of transportation constwise, by sea, and the transportation inland by railroads and canals, and the surface of our vast rivers and immense lakes, and seemed to be indispensably accessory, from su the value of property carried and interchanged by apprehension thought to be well founded, that is

It uses the State Banks ata distance from the agencies, asa uvillanes, with out imparting any power to trade in its name it ia-subjected to such grands and restraints as have appeared to be necessary. It is the creature of law, and exists only at the pleasure of the legslaturet It is made to rest on an actual spece basis, in order to redeem the notes at the pure is attended by no inflation of prices is equabl, in its operation makes the Treasury autowhich it may use along with the certificates of deposit, and the notes of specie paying banks convertible at the place where collected, m ceivable in payment of Government does and, without violating any principle of the Constitution, affords the Government and the people both. Such, it has oppeared to me, are its recommendations, and in view of them it will be submitted, whenever you may regain it, to your consideration. I am notable to perceive that any fair and candid objection can be urged against the plan the principal outlines of which I have thus pre sented. I cannot doubt but that the notes which it proposes to furnish at the yoluntary option of the public creditor, issued in hen of the revenor and its certificates of deposit, will be maintained at an equality with gold and silver every where. They are redeemable in gold and silver on de-

such facilities as are called for by the wants of mand, at the places of issue. They are received able every where in payment of Government dues. The Treasury notes are limited to hat mount of one fourth less than the estimated' and nual-receipts of the Treasury; and in addition they rest upon the faith of the Government for their redemption. If all these assurences assurances are not sufficient to make them available, then the ide, as it seems to me, of furnishing a sound paper medium of exchanges, may be entirely abandoned. If a fear be indulged that the Government may be tempted to run into excess in its isne, at any future day, it seems to me that no such appreheusion can reasonably be entertained, unti all confidence in the representatives of the States and of the people, as well as of the people them-selves, shall be lost. The weightiest considerations of policy require that the restraints now proposed to be thrown around the measure should not, for light causes be removed. To asque by gainst any proposed plan its liability to abuse, is to reject every expedient, since every thing de-pendent on human action is liable to abuse. Pr teen andions of Treasury notes may be issued at the maximum, but a discretionary power is to be given to the Board of Control, under that sum given to the noard of Control, under the said and every consideration will unite in leading them to feel their way with caution. For the eight first years of the existence of the late Bank of the United States, its circulation barely exceeded $4,000,000; and fur five of its most prosper-ous years, it was about equal to $15,000,000 furthermore, the authority given to receive pri vate deposits to a limited amount, and to issue certificates in such sums as may be called by the depositors, may so far fill up the channels of enculations as greatly to diminish the necessity on the sury sensiderable issue of Treasury notes. restraint upon the amount of private deposits has

is spaced in the of private deposits, with a view to alfrom mem or private deposits, with a view to ensure their undestionable safety when deposited with the Government, which might prove emiwith the Government, which might prove eminearly that it is proposed to authorize the agences to deal in bills of exchange? it is answered that such dealings are to be carried on at the that such accurage man are made to rest on an lowest possible premium are made to rest on an lowest possible sound basis, are designed to reindustrial industrial indurse andrew in the Treasury, and are in strict subordination to the decision of the Supreme subordination to the Rank of Augusta against Lourist and other reported cases; and thereby ahald to be indepensably requeste. It leaves the anking privileges of the States without interference look to the Treasury and the Union and, while furnishing every facility to the first, is carewhile turnishing every morney to the first, is curefill of the interests of the work and is rescreated by law; and wedded as I am to no theony, but looking antery to the advangement of the public good, I shall be amongst the very first to public good, I shall be found not to subscrive the ure its repeat objects for which it manufactors the purposes and objects for which it may be created. for will the plan be submitted in any overweening comment, but with much greater reliance on the abandon this subject, without urging upon you, Erecutive Manistrate by any and ... constitute gettler with an ext ton means, from a controling power over the public Treasury. If, in the plan proposed, should you deem it worthy of your consideration, that appration is not as complete as you may desire, red over the public moneys, other than is indispensably oeccasary, to execute the laws-which his been retributed to them, for the most part, in works of internal improvement, which are destined to prove of vast importance in ultimately advancing their prosperity and wealth. For the debis thus contracted the States are alone respassbe. I can do no more than express the belefthat each State will feel it self-bound, by every consideration of honor, as well as of interest, umeet its engagements with punctuality. The hime, however, of any one State to do so, should in no degree affect the credit of the rest; and the broign capitalist will have no just cause to expesence alarm as to all other State stocks, because my one or more of the States may neglect to will not fail to have the means, at no very disof that honorable conduct which has evermore giverned the States, and the People of the Union, ey will each and all resort to every legitimate espedient, before they will forego a faithful com-
